they are getting outstanding staff

ENS is committed to going Beyond Standards in Health & Social Care Recruitment

ENS recruitment, care and training

Two decades ago, we were a small family business that opened its doors dedicated to finding good people and finding the right jobs for them. We're still family run, but our "family" has grown a little since then. We've grown into a leading health and social care recruiter and training provider for staff across the private and public sectors. These include the NHS, local authorities, housing associations and nursing and residential care providers.

We also provide support packages for people who need help living independently.

Today we are a well-known and trusted name in the health and social care sector throughout the UK. Whether we're sourcing staff for positions in the NHS or support workers for daily cover in social care settings we're always committed to providing excellence.

ENS. Going Beyond Standards in health and social care recruitment with integrity, creativity & compassion.

SOCIAL CARE

Working with you to find the best social care staff

ENS specialises in recruiting social care staff for both permanent and temporary positions. We are able to help you source candidates for a range of positions from Operations Managers and Registered Managers through to support workers and have access to a large database of fully vetted, trained and experienced candidates in your area.

We recruit in the following temporary and permanent specialisms:

- Learning Disability
- Physical Disability
- Mental Health
- Older People
- Sensory Impairment
- Respite Care
- Live In
- Palliative Care
- Children's Services
- Supported Living

Only thoroughly vetted staff supplied

We've added extra layers of protection to our process. We are CQC inspected and also checked annually by the ISO 9001 quality auditor where we pass with flying colours year after year. This means we minimise your risks by ensuring the recruitment process is fully compliant with the industry regulations, so you can be doubly sure that you are getting compliant staff.

ENS is more than just a recruitment agency, we're also a care provider ourselves

As a provider of care services in our own right we manage supported living services and also help a range of people to remain independent in their own home.

Our experience has shown us that excellence in our industry is vital and when recruiting the right person for a social care setting, there is no room for error. That is why we pay careful attention to our clients' needs and thoroughly check every candidate.

Staying ahead through innovation

ENS offers call monitoring (electronic monitoring) which eliminates time sheets and increases shift change oversight. By allowing staff to sign in and out electronically it makes it much easier to quickly see that everybody is where they should be.

I would definitely recommend ENS without a doubt. mcch are having to respond to the changing market dynamics like every other provider in the sector by being more and more efficient and reducing our costs. ENS are part of helping us do that in a sustainable quality assured way.”

David Hall – mcch, Master Vendor client

mcch is a registered charity and social care provider. It has been established for over 25 years and provides registered care and support services for people with a learning disability, mental health issues and autism.

Very pleased with the service received. The best Agency I have come across in 15 years of supporting people with a learning disability, physical needs, and behaviours that challenge. ENS is a credit to the profession.”

Gary – Team Leader, Supported Living Service

HEALTHCARE

Sourcing the right healthcare staff at a cost that works for you

ENS is also an established healthcare recruitment agency providing temporary and permanent staffing solutions to the NHS and private healthcare providers. Our expertise in healthcare recruitment means we have experience in sourcing staff in most major areas of healthcare ranging from doctors, nurses, healthcare assistants and administration roles to allied health professionals and other specialisms.

Fully compliant staff with up-to-date training

As leaders in health and social care recruitment, we are highly experienced in compliance. Every candidate supplied has to meet all industry requirements and have up-to-date training before they are recommended for any position. This includes verifying all medical qualifications where it is required for both temporary and permanent staff so you can be confident that the staff we supply have been thoroughly checked and deemed compliant.

Why choose ENS?

25 years of experience recruiting in healthcare

We specialise in recruiting permanent and temporary staff for the NHS and private healthcare providers

We're able to recruit for a range of positions from specialist nurses, doctors and allied health professionals through to consultants

You have access to our consultants 7 days a week, 24 hours a day

Cost Saving

We understand that you are in a time where your budgets are being stretched to their limits and that this is combined with a shortfall of professionals available in the sector, meaning recruitment is becoming ever more difficult and expensive. We are able to work with you to source the right staff for your healthcare service while also aiming to reduce your recruitment costs.

Our hard work means you get the efficient, quality-driven and cost-effective recruitment solutions you need.

Getting to know you and your service

When you work with us you get a dedicated consultant who aims to really get to know you and your service. This way they are able to understand the challenges you are facing and can create a bespoke package that works for the individual needs of your healthcare service.

TRAINING

Excellence in training for our staff

You can be sure that the staff we supply are thoroughly trained and properly certified. All ENS health and social care workers receive thorough training in accordance with the latest guidance from Skills for Care / Skills for Health.

We've added the possibility of e-learning to increase flexibility for our clients and candidates. Today we offer a blended approach to learning, offering a mixture of face-to-face and online learning.

Let us train your staff

Our blended approach to learning combines both practical courses and assessment with theoretical e-learning modules. Our range of courses includes all the mandatory training requirements and Care Certificate induction modules, as well as more specialised health and care topics.

Our expert courses and professional trainers are available for single candidates on our rolling practical programmes or for a bespoke course delivered at your location.

Our e-learning portal has been developed to enable clients to access up-to-date and fully compliant training modules for staff at a competitive price. Clients can purchase credits for e-learning courses which gives you access to your own individual course management area where courses can be allocated, results viewed and certificates downloaded.
